

Discipleship Groups

Week 8

As your people gather, welcome them, and help them to greet one another.

When it's time to begin, welcome them as a group. Since you are the one who knows what the previous weeks' conversations have been, you are in the best position to judge what follow-up may be appropriate at the beginning of each week's session. The videos and discussion questions I supply endeavor to have thematic integrity from one week to the next. But you're the one in a position to make sure that there is a personal connection from week to week.

After whatever initial conversation you think best, transition the group to watching this week's video together. The video can be downloaded or it can be played from the web site.

As the group will discover from the video, our sharing time will endeavor to be comprehensive, reflecting on all that we have talked about together so far. You can use your own judgment about how you want to balance group discussion versus individual sharing. Some of each is desirable.

Questions to prompt both the discussion and the sharing might include:

- Are you consciously living with Jesus more than you were a few weeks ago?
- In terms of place, where is it easiest for you to live with Him? Why?
- In terms of place, where is it most difficult for you to live with Him? Why?
- In terms of time, when is it easiest to live with Him? Why?
- In terms of time, when is it most difficult for you to live with Him? Why?
- In terms of moods or feelings, what has been most easy and most difficult for you to live with Jesus?
- Has your greatest growth in your experience of living with Him been in more places, more times, or more moods?

Close your time with a brief prayer on behalf of the whole group.

Before everyone is dismissed, remind the group members about your next meeting time and place, as well as encouraging them to pray for one another each day between now and then.
